Dear Jim:

I was sorry to learn from your letter of several weeks ago that your trip to Spain is adjourned and particularly to learn the cause of it.

I expect to come to Chicago for a day, Monday, May 25th. I want to [redacted] in the area and have agreed to make an informal off-the-record talk to the Commonwealth Club. I particularly want to see you during my visit there and Monday afternoon after the lunch would probably be the best time if it is possible for you. This of course assumes that you will not have started on your trip to Spain.

Clover joins me in messages to you both.

Sincerely,
